EMT Oath

Written by: Charles Gillespie M.D.

Be it pledged as an Emergency Medical Technician, I will honor the physical and judicial laws of God and man.

I will follow that regimen which, according to my ability and judgement, I consider for the benefit of patients and abstain from whatever is deleterious and mischievous, nor shall I suggest any such counsel.

Into whatever homes I enter, I will go into them for the benefit of only the sick and injured, never revealing what I see or hear in the lives of men unless required by law.

I shall also share my medical knowledge with those who may benefit from what I have learned.

I will serve unselfishly and continuously in order to help make a better world for all mankind.

While I continue to keep this oath unviolated, may it be granted to me to enjoy life, and the practice of the art, respected by all men, in all times.

Should I trespass or violate this oath, may the reverse be my lot.

So help me God.
